

BIOGRAPHY SANYA KROITOR

Date of Birth: 17. 04.1971 - Kishinev, Moldova.

At the age of seven Sanya started to study the trend of classical violin in the music school of Kishinev. After eight years of schooling, by 1986 he was accepted to college to study classical music, folklore and composition. During his studies he had various classical music competitions in most of the cities in Moldova, he appeared on television and theater, worked with bands and participated in the orchestra of Emil Kroitor (Sanya's father), accordionist who is known in the former USSR. Also during school Sanya went already several times with performances abroad including concerts in Finland, France, Bulgaria and Romania.

At the end of 1992 Sanya immigrated to Israel. For several months he was working with the band of Miki Gavrielov which whom after it he worked for several of years. The cooperation lead to concerts, recordings and television appearances. Since then Sanya was working in television programs such as Musical Tower of Shimon Parnas together with Dan Shilon, Eli Yazpan and the like.

In his career he worked with the following artists: Noa, David Deor, Shlomi Shabat, Amir Ben Study, David Fisher, Rita, Sarit Hadad, Alabina and others.

Since 2003 Sanya is playing as solo violinist with his own band internationally.

He participated in recordings worldwide and therefore published a large number of records.

In addition, Sanya participated in festivals such as Klezmer Music Poland, Estonia Yiddish, Jewish Music Toronto, WOMAD in Australia and New - Zealand, England, Spain and more.

Currently Sanya lives and works in Israel. He is in the process of recording his fourth album and is a laureate of several competitions (including the Fishman Competition and Man of the Year 2007 organized by Channel Israel Plus.)

Discography:

2003: first solo album produced under the title ALL IN ONE.

2007: second album produced in South Korea under the title HIGH VOLTAGE VIOLIN.

2008: third album produced under the title RENEWAL.